

Workshop on “Architectural Origami”

20th March 2018

A workshop on “Architectural Origami” was conducted at Department of Architecture, DYPCET, Kolhapur. This workshop was conducted particularly for first year students to improve their creativity knowledge, hands on skill experiments, etc. Prof. Archana Desai conducted the workshop.

Prof. Archana Desai Showing techniques of Origami

Students Working on Architectural Origami

A workshop has started with introduction of the Guest and topic by workshop coordinator Prof. Gourav Vinchu. Prof. Archana Desai gives a brief introduction and presentation of Architectural Origami, its techniques and different material required for such origami work.

F.Y B.Arch. Students with Guest Prof. Archana Desai, Coordinator Prof. Gourav Vinchu, Subject teacher Prof. Gauri Kulkarni, Prof. Shakil Patel

Students experienced a different techniques and process of hands on skill activity and handling a different materials .The reflection of this workshop can be seen in their design process, elevational treatments and formation of shapes during planning.