Brief description of the activity

A visit to the Smritivan Garden, Warna Nagar was organized for the Third -year B.Arch students on 02-08-2025. Students explored Smritivan Garden, a public park designed for recreation and environmental awareness. The garden is spread across a large area and includes memorial installations, thematic plantations, shaded paths, and sitting areas for public use.

Outcome of the activity

- Gained knowledge about public space design, circulation paths, and user-friendly landscape planning.
- Understood the role of thematic and commemorative landscaping in urban settings.
- Documented design elements like signage, seating, and lighting.
- Discussions were held on how landscape architecture can support both functionality and emotion in public memory spaces.
